Dear OSF,

I would like to resign from my position as Director of Operations as of today, September 17, 2012.

I would also like to resign from my board position. I would like this resignation to stand considering the fact that when I was removed from the board, I had just spent a couple weeks withstanding pressure to resign in an effort to inform the board of covert actions. I needed time to articulate myself prior to receiving any further resignation pressure and this time was not allotted prior to my removal.

Best,

[REDACTED]

Thanks [REDACTED]. You've done a lot of really great work here and I know you'll have even more success in the future. Wish you the best professionally and personally. Don't be a stranger.
